- If you are coming from Treviso airport, you can take the bus to Piazzale Roma. To get to the apartment, take the ACTV line 2 (red) vaporetto (in front of Piazzale Roma) to the Rialto stop.
<https://maps.app.goo.gl/ygQdpjaDWSbEcZb38>
- For the return you have to follow the same itinerary, but the stop where you will have to take the vaporetto in Rialto is closer to the apartment than the one on the way back.

- PONTE DEI PUGNI → Here you can see footprints on the ground marking the place where the fighters of two very powerful Venetian families, the Nicolotti and the Castellani, used to meet here to fist fight (pugni). They used to meet here for fist fights (pugni). As the bridges did not have railings at that time, the loser of the fight fell into the water, and the winner was the side that had the most fighters stay on the bridge without falling off. These fights were very violent and evolved from fisticuffs to weapons, even resulting in death. For this reason they were banned in the 18th century and railings were placed on all bridges.
Next to the bridge there is usually a moored boat where they sell fresh fruit and vegetables.
